THE BEST PART OF TRAVELLING

Tours & Activities: the tourism industry has been calling them ancillaries since forever but, we believe, they truly are the best part of travelling.

And the latest trends and stats prove us right.

T&A is currently the third-largest travel segment, ranking right after flights and hotels and accounting for 10% of global travel revenue: according to the latest surveys, more than 95% of all travellers booked an organized tour, visited a museum or reached one specific attraction.

Among these travellers, a good 50% purchases T&A once they reach the chosen destination: letting them know the advantages of booking in advance (e.g. a decreased risk of scams, proper information, reliable customer support and so on) can at the same time improve travel quality while extending the traveller's length of stay.

Offering activities can result in a win-win situation and represents a good chance for up- and cross-selling, both for travel agencies and tour operators.

In the following pages, you'll find the largest T&A offer available in Rome: prime tours, low-budget services, visits to all the main touristic attractions at different prices and times of the day, experiences created for those who already know the city, guided or independent day-trips to Italy's best destinations for arts and culture.

Because Tours & Activities are, to us, anything but ancillaries.

GUESTS' SATISFACTION:

Making memories is a big part of travelling, that's why we do all our best to provide unforgettable tours and impeccable guest experience.

Focusing on life-long training, organizing professional refreshers for our employees as well as targeted workshops for our guides and tour leaders, employing specifically trained staff that takes care of our clients' satisfaction before, during and after the experience: these are only some of the actions we are taking in order to stay up-to-date with the industry's changes: results such as being awarded the Certificate of Excellence from TripAdvisor, both as Carrani Tours and as Gray Line Rome, show us that we're on the right path

USEFUL INFORMATION BEFORE BOOKING OUR TOURSChildren policy:

For applicable reductions or conditions please check the brochure.

Pick up time from centrally located hotels:

Our pick-up service takes place in the centre of Rome. Depending on traffic conditions and on the number of passengers who booked that specific tour, it takes around one hour for the bus to pick up all of the passengers. For this reason, pick-up times are shown as an interval. "Starting from 7:30" means that in order to be on time for the beginning of the tour, we will pick up you from your hotel at 7:30 or later.

Dress Code and Clothing Restrictions:

In Rome, especially in places of worship and inside the Vatican Museums, it is strictly forbidden to bring strollers, bulky bags and umbrellas.

Above-the-knee skirts and pants, low-cut clothing and sleeveless tops are never allowed in places of worship and inside the Vatican. Guests who fail to respect the attire requirements may be turned down at the entrance of the point of interest, therefore we suggest wearing or bringing appropriate clothes before the beginning of the tour.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

If you have a metal coated pacemaker, you have to show your pacemaker identification card at the Security checks.

#UNESCOJEWELSOFTALY

We feature monolingual walking tours in the Eternal City or Full Day Tours outside Rome (Rome Countryside, Assisi, Tivoli, Capri, Pompeii, Positano, Florence or Venice) for small groups who desire to discover the cultural heritage with a special attention to Italian Unesco Sites and the local gastronomy.

We guarantee skip the line access to museums and cultural sites, with professional and authorized local guides.

#UnescoJewelsofItaly as of July 2019, Italy has 55 sites featured on the UNESCO's World Heritage Sites list, making it the #1 country on the planet with the largest number of world "cultural" heritage sites

The Unesco World Heritage Sites are places of cultural or natural importance to the common heritage of humanity; Carrani Tours - I Love Rome offers products and services throughout the entire territory of Italy, discovering most of these important sites: Pompeii and its Ruins, Assisi & St. Francis Basilica, Amalfi Coast, Florence, Pisa, Cinque Terre, Tivoli and its Villas and the Historic Centre of Rome. Passion and professionalism builds a network of tours and visits, counting with more than 800.000 Travellers per year, from all over the world.

UNESCO, United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization is known as the "intellectual" agency of the United Nations; it was created in 1945 in order to respond to the firm belief of nations, forged by two world wars in less than a generation, that political and economic agreements are not enough to build a lasting peace.

UNESCO strives to build networks among nations that enable this kind of solidarity building intercultural understanding: through protection of heritage and support for cultural diversity; the idea of World Heritage is created to protect sites of outstanding universal value; while each World Heritage Site remains part of the legal territory of the state wherein the site is located, UNESCO considers it in the interest of the international community to preserve each site.

Take advantage of our exclusive prime service and enjoy the Vatican Museums the VIP way.

Wake up in the morning at your centrally located hotel and wait for our driver to come and pick you up. You'll reach the Vatican area to join a super-agile group of fewer than 10 people.

The Vatican Museums are one of the richest and most beloved art collection in the world: they display around 20.000 pieces of art. With such a huge amount of artwork, it's easy to feel lost. That's why a professional guide can make a difference. Meet yours: they will let you access the Museums, skipping the incredibly long lines at the door and saving you lots of precious time.

You will be able to admire some of the most impressive Renaissance art pieces: the unique Gallery of Tapestries, the lavish Gallery of Maps, the stunning Raphael's Rooms and the world-famous Sistine Chapel.

The tour couldn't be complete without St. Peter's Square the open space which lies before the basilica, redesigned by Gian Lorenzo Bernini and being itself an architectural masterpiece of the Baroque age. You'll admire St. Peter's Basilica(outside) that isn't only the largest church in the world, but that contains several pieces of fine art: think the canopy designed by Gian Lorenzo Bernini or the Pietà by Michelangelo.

You won't have to worry about losing your group, though. We always provide earphones and a radio receiver to our guests, to let them always enjoy both the guide's commentary while feeling free to snoop around.

BORGHESE GALLERY: AN IMPORTANT MUSEUM IN THE HEART OF ROME

When in Rome, one cannot miss out on the Borghese Gallery, a museum that houses a very important art collection including works by Bernini, Caravaggio, Canova and Raphael. A professional local guide will illustrate the Gallery and its elegant, sophisticated and even regal interior and exterior spaces. The underlying sculptures and paintings in the building come from the private collection of cardinal Scipione Borghese (1579 - 1633), an art collector and patron, son of Ortensia Borghese, pope Paul V's sister. The cardinal's attention was directed to all Renaissance and contemporary art expressions, but wasn't really into medieval art. Thus, his ambitions favored sculptures and marble groups whose high standards rivalled those of ancient art. Pauline Bonaparte as Venus Victrix, sculpted by Canova between 1805 and 1808, has been here since 1838. In 1807 Camillo Borghese gave Napoleon 154 statues, 160 busts, 170 bas reliefs, 30 columns and a number of other objects that now make for a Borghese-derived Louvre catalog. Bernini's artworks (Apollo and Daphne, The rape of Proserpina, David, to name just a few) have a prominent position in the gallery's spaces on the first floor, too - so much so that one cannot but remain literally entranced by them. The collection of paintings is also very compelling: Pictures by Caravaggio, Titian, Correggio and Raphael are displayed on the second floor among many others. Tickets to the Gallery must be booked well in advance, but we take care of it! By booking this tour, access is secured and you won't have to pay anything at check-in. The tour also includes hotel pick-up. From any centrally located hotel, we'll reach the museum together with no stress by private minivan. A version without pick-up is an option (the tour will start at a meeting point). When the tour is over, we suggest lingering outside in Villa Borghese, the huge public garden where the Gallery is located. Everyone finds a walk along the villa's tree-flanked promenades very relaxing. The Pincio terrace is a twenty-minute walk, this being one of Rome's hills. From here one can enjoy wonderful views not only over Piazza del Popolo right below and the Prati district, but also St Peter's Dome, the Gianicolo, the Quirinale, Piazza Venezia as well as the Capitol hill. The outlook from the Pincio is really one of a kind!

POPE LEONE XIV S' PUBLIC AUDIENCE IN THE VATICAN CITY

Rome offers the unique chance of living an immersive experience in Catholic traditions, seeing Pope Leone XIV himself during Wednesday's Papal Audience: a very intense point of contact between the Pope and the faithful coming from the four corners of the world.

Pope Leone XIV and the Cardinals will pass through the crowd reaching their stage, greet and bless people in different languages, with hymns and homilies, and you can be part of this special event.

Get your pre-booked tickets to grant a seat as close as possible to the Pope, be supported by an expert local guide and an audio device and be sure to get perfectly on time at such a busy and requested happening.

The Audience may be either celebrated in the majestic venue of St. Peter's Square or in the dedicated Nervi Hall, according to the Vatican's schedule: in case of the former, you'll reach the Piazza walking in one of the most beautiful areas in town, passing by the monumental Castel Sant'Angelo and along Via Della Conciliazione.

You'll pass the security checkpoints to the Vatican City accompanied by a professional guide, who'll also suggest where to sit and who'll be happy to help to make your arrival easy, despite the crowd.

The Audience will end around 11:30/11:45 AM: right after you will meet our guide again, in Via Della Conciliazione 48, to give the audio device back.

Discover the timeless charm of the Basilica of Santa Maria Maggiore, one of the four papal basilicas in Rome and among the oldest Christian churches in the world. This sacred place now holds an even deeper meaning, as it is the final resting place of our beloved Pope Francis, recently passed away. His spiritual presence makes the visit even more moving for faithful and travelers from around the world.

Join us for an exclusive 1 hour and 30 minute guided tour and explore areas usually closed to the public. The meeting point is at 4:00 PM in front of the basilica, where you will meet an expert guide who will lead you on this journey through art, history, and spirituality.

After a short introduction, you will enter through a reserved entrance for pre-booked guests, accessing extraordinary places such as the Loggia of Blessings, offering panoramic views over Piazza Esquilino, and the Hall of the Popes, a solemn room tied to the basilica's papal history. You will also admire the spectacular staircase designed by Gian Lorenzo Bernini, a symbol of Baroque genius.

And last but not least, this tour includes access to the panoramic terraces of the twin domes, where you'll enjoy sweeping views of Rome in an evocative and intimate setting. Upon descending, the visit continues inside the basilica.

You will be enveloped in a mystical atmosphere as light filters through stained glass windows, illuminating the early Christian mosaics and sixteenth-century frescoes. Admire scenes from the Old Testament on the 5th-century Triumphal Arch, the High Altar, side chapels, and the moving Sacred Crib, one of Christianity's most cherished relics.

MARITOTZI & ROMAN BREAKFAST TOUR IN TRASTEVERE

Group sizes of no more than 12 people

Ready to experience the most authentic Roman breakfast?

Join us on the Maritozzi Breakfast Tour in Trastevere, an exclusive culinary journey celebrating the iconic Roman pastry, the maritozzo, and other delicious treats. From sweet pastries to savory delights, this tour takes you from breakfast to lunch, offering an immersive cultural and gastronomic experience in one of Rome's most charming districts.

Begin your morning in the heart of Trastevere, one of Rome's most enchanting neighborhoods. Known for its cobblestone streets, vibrant charm, and authentic Roman vibe, Trastevere sets the perfect stage for this culinary journey. Meet your expert foodie guide and prepare to embark on an unforgettable breakfast adventure.

Kick off your experience with a quintessential Roman breakfast: a steaming cappuccino paired with a flaky cornetto, or perhaps a robust espresso or comforting caffelatte. This first stop takes place in a venue rich with history—formerly the stage of a historic theater—where you'll savor the timeless joy of morning rituals cherished by locals.

As your tour unfolds, stroll through Trastevere's winding streets, brimming with character. Adorned with lush greenery and vibrant street art, these alleys are filled with stories waiting to be told. Your guide will reveal hidden gems and share fascinating insights about the district's unique culture and history.

Next, step into a beloved family-run bakery, one of the oldest in the area. Here, you'll sample the delightful ciavattone, a puff pastry filled with custard, ricotta, or jam. Crafted with generations of tradition, this artisanal treat is a true testament to Rome's love for sweet indulgence.

The adventure continues at an iconic Roman bar, a bustling spot where locals gather to play cards and enjoy their morning routines. Sink your teeth into a soft, cloud-like maritozzo filled with whipped cream, perfectly complemented by a refreshing granita di caffè (coffee slush). This sweet pairing is a quintessential Roman favorite, offering a perfect blend of flavor and texture.

But the tour doesn't stop at sweet delights. Discover the savory side of the maritozzo, a lesser-known yet equally delicious variation. At the final stop, savor maritozzi filled with rich and flavorful pollo alla cacciatora (hunter-style chicken) or the exquisite combination of burrata and anchovies. Paired with a glass of wine, this last indulgence ties your morning together with a touch of Roman elegance.

This unique tour is more than just a feast for the palate—it's an exploration of Rome's culinary traditions and cultural heartbeat. As you walk, taste, and discover, your guide will share valuable tips for continuing your culinary journey in the Eternal City.

ESPRESSO, TIRAMISÙ AND GELATO TASTING TOUR

Group sizes of no more than 12 people

Everybody loves some good Italian artisanal gelato, a tiny cup of hot espresso and a decadent portion of creamy tiramisù, and there's no better chance to satisfy your sweet tooth than your Italian holiday.

But, in a city as big and crowded as Rome, the risk of bumping into overpriced tourist traps is real. What to do, then?

You can try your luck, or you can reach us under Bernini's elephant and obelisk, very close to the Pantheon, for this two-hour-and-half walking food tour.

Our trusted local food connoisseur will introduce to you all those mouth-watering local treats you've been dreaming about, giving you info and answering questions.

The setting is, of course, stunning: all the coffee and pastry shops that you'll visit are all located in the city center, so keep your selfie stick ready!

One tasting after another, you'll learn to recognize what is considered high quality when it comes to Italian food: how can you recognize an authentic artisan gelato from an industrially processed one? What ingredients are needed in order to prepare a good home-made tiramisù? And do Italians really drink cappuccino only before lunch?

You'll go back home being an expert in the field and...with a full stomach!

La dolce vita, the sweet life, couldn't get sweeter than this.

ROME FOOD TOUR

Group sizes of no more than 12 people

Foodies of the world, unite! Whether you're a seasoned gourmand or just a food lover wishing to find out more about Roman cuisine and Italian food traditions, reach our meeting point. You'll join our local food connoisseur guide for a food walk, in a group of no more than 12 people (and yes, you'll try and taste lots of different treats!)

We'll meet mid-morning and enjoy a lovely walking tour through local food markets, grocery stores and gelato shops in the areas of Campo De' Fiori, Trastevere, and the Jewish Ghetto.

We know that exercise makes one hungry, that's why we thought you'd appreciate some pit-stops. For instance, you'll enjoy a slice of freshly baked crispy pizza bianca (Rome's own version of focaccia) cut in half horizontally and filled with thin slices of freshly cut mortadella: a traditional, more-Roman-than-the-Colosseum easy snack that locals love.

And what about trying a supplì? This little ball of deep-fried tomato sauce risotto with a heart of melted mozzarella cheese is everyone's favorite street food.

Pasta will be on the list too, along with some dishes from the Roman Jewish tradition: the carciofo alla giudia a Jewish style deep-fried artichoke that resembles a tiny sunflower or the fried zucchini flower (according to seasonality)

And save some space for dessert, because we won't skip our portion of artisan gelato!

SUNSET COOKING CLASS IN THE JEWISH GHETTO

Group sizes of no more than 15 people

Take your authentic Roman-style pasta cooking class in the Jewish district of Rome as seen in the Stanley Tucci's show

Take a break from visiting the city by meeting local people and learning how to make a typical Roman dinner menu from scratch. Meet your host in Piazza Mattei, a fascinating square in the heart of Rome's former Jewish Ghetto. The area offers breathtaking views of the stratification of Rome over centuries and a number of shops as well as very good restaurants selling Jewish-Roman food. Enjoy the easygoing lifestyle the Ghetto is so famous for!

Access the restaurant where the class takes place and meet your Chef who will be ready to share his recipes with you and reveal his tricks. This is a hands-on class, but being a simple spectator is also an option: you can relax, watch the chef at work, while you sip a glass of wine. You will learn how to make homemade pasta from scratch, cleaning and preparing seasonal vegetables to fry, and taste desserts that Roman grandmothers used to cook for their kids. Seasonal food is a must in Rome. In a winter class, you'll have the opportunity to learn how to peel artichokes and cook them in the Jewish style, one of the highlights of Roman cuisine (carciofi alla giudia). In a typical summer class, you'll learn how to prepare zucchini flowers or other amazingly fresh vegetables that are in season during warmer months to make the original "fritto romano". For dessert, taste the amazing torta di ricotta e visciola, a famous ricotta cheesecake made with simple and delicious ingredients (visciola is a sour cherry).

Book your pasta cooking class if you are looking for an authentic and entertaining experience in the Jewish district! Do not expect an academic class, though, just some time together with local people having fun as you prepare your own dishes!

You will then see Piazza della Repubblica (originally the site of the city's forum, then of its ghetto, which was cleared up during some improvement works of the square), Orsanmichele exterior (a building constructed on the site of the kitchen garden of the no longer existing monastery of San Michele), the astounding Ponte Vecchio (a medieval stone arch bridge over the Arno River) and Piazza Signoria (the focal point of the origin and history of the Florentine Republic; this is where one can admire the 'David' sculpture by Michelangelo, actually a perfect copy of the original one housed in the Galleria dell'Accademia di Firenze for protection).

After the walking tour you will access the famous Galleria degli Uffizi with no line to see its highlights up close. It is one of the most famous museums in the world. Among its countless works, you will have the chance to admire the masterpieces of Botticelli, Leonardo, Michelangelo, Raphael, Titian and Caravaggio. Indeed, some of the priceless works to be seen and illustrated by the local guide are: Sandro Botticelli's The Birth of Venus, Caravaggio's Medusa, Artemisia Gentileschi's Judith Beheading Holofernes, Titian's Venus of Urbino. All their secrets will be unveiled by the local guide as he/she contextualizes their origins and the stories behind them.

VENICE BY HIGH-SPEED TRAIN

Let us take you to Venice and back from Rome in just one day! No destination is too far away from Rome by high-speed trains.

A tour leader will be with you to make sure you make it to Venice safely, show you around so you won't feel disoriented and give you tips that would do the trick. You will meet your leader at Roma Termini railways station for check-in. Follow him or her to the platform and get on the train with no stress. You will reach Venice in a bit more than 3 hours.

From Venezia Santa Lucia railway station, you will reach a vaporetto stop (dock) located a stone's throw away. Enjoy the ride on the Venetian typical public transport waterbus, a fantastic way to start taking a glimpse at amazing views, architecture, historical buildings and churches façades, docks, gondolas, common residents running their errands and tourists doing their thing... The one-run ticket pass to the city center is included, and handed out by the tour leader.

St. Mark's Square is the heart of the historical center. After getting off the vaporetto and a two-minute walk, simply take a left turn and take in the magnificence of the Western façade of St. Mark's Basilica. What makes Venice special is also the 118 small islands it is built on as well as the 400ish bridges that span the famous canals: from St. Mark, don't be afraid to get lost in the maze of alleys (or calli) to see them. Spend some time shopping, sipping an espresso in one of the quaint historical coffee shops, or even sitting at the outside table of a modern bar. Maybe make a stop (highly recommended) on the Bridge of Sighs (or Ponte dei sospiri), one of the most beautiful Insta spots for amazing shots.

On your way back to the railway station, meet your tour leader because he or she has something for you... We thought we'd invite you for an aperitivo, or cicchetto, as Venetians call it. It is a mix of small savory snacks and side dishes typically served in a bar or informal restaurant and washed down with a spritz veneziano. Is there a better way to relax and rest your feet after an intense but memorable excursion in one of the most astounding cities in the world?

TOUR OF NAPLES AND THE KING: DIEGO ARMANDO MARADONA - FROM ROME

You will reach Naples city center from Rome in just one hour and 15 minutes by a high-speed train.

According to the day and time of arrival, the Naples walking tour will take place in the morning or in the afternoon. An expert local guide will wait for you in front of Teatro San Carlo, near the Royal Palace and Piazza del Plebiscito. Be ready to explore the highlights of Naples and learn more about its history!

You will see the very heart of the city and your professional guide will keep a marked focus on the places that symbolize the bond between Maradona and Naples.

We will start from Piazza Plebiscito, and continue through Galleria Umberto I, reaching the famous Spanish Quarters. Every corner, every street and every glimpse of this city will testify the deep love of the Neapolitan people for Maradona.

He was unanimously considered a hero, the one who gave Naples the joy of the first championship trophy. The entire city of Naples testifies to the passage of the "Pibe de Oro". Diegomania it is all around! From graffiti to cakes with his face, from fireworks nicknamed "Maradona's balloon" to all kinds of gadgets and souvenirs, from poems in his honor to Neapolitan nativity scene statuettes.

Maradona is without a doubt a true universal icon, but Naples was his second home and Neapolitans will always be grateful to him. By attending this tour, you will visit two of the must-see destinations for any aficionado of "The number 10": Vico Lungo Gelso and Piazza Maradona near via Emanuele De Deo. Here, you will admire the famous graffiti and wall paintings dedicated to the Pibe de Oro, as well as a ceramic mosaic by two Italian-French artists, and a stencil by the Argentinian street artist San Spiga, created to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the first championship won by Maradona's Napoli team. You will also see another huge stencil representing Maradona as he dribbles.

Continuing on via Emanuele de Deo (Piazzetta Diego Armando Maradona), more wall paintings are to be seen that have become a real pilgrimage destination for supporters and fans. These are dedicated to the soccer player in memory of Napoli's second scudetto, in 1990

Before or after the tour, there will be free time for you explore other areas of Naples on your own.

At the scheduled time, be ready to reach the train station to return to Rome.
