Come sunset, Rome turns into one of the most romantic places ever! Enjoy a relaxing panoramic tour of Rome by private car or minivan and discover how charming the most famous Roman monuments can get at night. You will walk across the ex-Jewish Ghetto, a traditional historic neighborhood. In the heart of the ex-ghetto (Piazza Mattei) one of the cutest fountains in town stands out, the Fontana delle Tartarughe. The Jewish Ghetto of Rome is the second most ancient ghetto in Italy after the one in Venice, and it can be considered the heart and soul of Roman cuisine. You will walk into Piazza della Rotonda and enjoy a lit Pantheon, a Roman temple to all the gods wanted by M. Agrippa which was later converted into a church: this is the only ancient Roman temple that remained untouched throughout the centuries, and it's stunning to see at night when the crowds are away. Next stop is... Just close your eyes and throw a coin over your right shoulder straight into the Trevi Fountain: it's said that those who do so, are granted to come back to Rome someday. Your walk continues towards Piazza di Spagna, one of the city's most popular squares, known for its setting at the bottom of the Spanish Steps. Walk up these famous steps to enjoy a lovely view from the top (or Trinità dei Monti).

This is an itinerary suggestion. Customers can decide the best itinerary according to their needs and discuss it with their guide. The tour will last 3 hours approx. Entrances are not included.

One tasting after another, you'll learn to recognize what is considered high quality when it comes to Italian food: how can you recognize an authentic artisan gelato from an industrially processed one? What ingredients are needed in order to prepare a good home-made tiramisù? And do Italians really drink cappuccino only before lunch? You'll go back home being an expert in the field and... with a full stomach! La dolce vita, the sweet life, couldn't get sweeter than this.

Take your authentic Roman-style pasta cooking class in the Jewish district of Rome as seen in the Stanley Tucci's show. Take a break from visiting the city by meeting local people and learning how to make a typical Roman dinner menu from scratch. Meet your host in Piazza Mattei, a fascinating square in the heart of Rome's former Jewish Ghetto. The area offers breathtaking views of the stratification of Rome over centuries and a number of shops as well as very good restaurants selling Jewish-Roman food. Enjoy the easygoing lifestyle the Ghetto is so famous for! Access the restaurant where the class takes place and meet your Chef who will be ready to share his recipes with you and reveal his tricks. This is a hands-on class, but being a simple spectator is also an option: you can relax, watch the chef at work, while you sip a glass of wine. You will learn how to make homemade pasta from scratch, cleaning and preparing seasonal vegetables to fry, and taste desserts that Roman grandmothers used to cook for their kids. Seasonal food is a must in Rome. In a winter class, you'll have the opportunity to learn how to peel artichokes and cook them in the Jewish style, one of the highlights of Roman cuisine (carciofi alla giudia). In a typical summer class, you'll learn how to prepare zucchini flowers or other amazingly fresh vegetables that are in season during warmer months to make the original "fritto romano". For dessert, taste the amazing torta di ricotta e visciola, a famous ricotta cheesecake made with simple and delicious ingredients (visciola is a sour cherry). Book your pasta cooking class if you are looking for an authentic and entertaining experience in the Jewish district! Do not expect an academic class, though, just some time together with local people having fun as you prepare your own dishes!

Don't miss out on Tivoli, an ancient resort area near Rome famous for Roman ruins and lavish Renaissance residences.

Enjoy a comfortable transport to the little town of Tivoli, new Rome. Tivoli and its Villas is a tantalizing comprehensive tour that will leave you astonished. You will meet your driver to travel to this small town located 43 kilometers (that's 27 miles) from Rome, set in a splendid natural environment between the Eternal City and the high hills to the east. It is best known for hosting two UNESCO World Heritage sites. This is where Hadrian built his majestic villa back in the 2nd century AD: a luxury country residence where he used to retreat and where he lived his late years. The huge complex includes more than 30 buildings, several swimming pools, former thermal stations, and it covers an area larger than a square kilometer (0,386 square miles), which gives quite an idea of the purpose of the place: show the opulence and power of the emperor. In the 16th century, much of the remaining marble and statues were removed from Hadrian's Villa by Cardinal Ippolito II d'Este. With those marbles he decorated his own villa located nearby: Villa d'Este, a UNESCO world heritage site. The villa interiors are largely frescoed, and a huge garden surrounds it, displaying a complex system of pools, water jets, channels, fountains, cascades, and water games. What makes this system of fountains such an incredible masterpiece of engineering is that it works entirely by the force of gravity, without pumps.

Spend an unforgettable day getting a panoramic view of Capri, reaching the island with no stress and our tour includes Blue Grotto's visit. Capri is a famous destination. You'll feel overwhelmed by its gorgeous sights – beautiful sea, flourishing nature, historic monuments. Capri has it all! It is said that Emperor Tiberius liked it so much that he refused to return to Rome and reigned most of the time from a villa on a cliff. Capri is also known for its many artisan shops and luxury boutiques. An absolute highlight is the Blue Grotto, a marine temple during Roman times. Nowadays swimming is forbidden here, and only small rowboats are allowed under the supervision of local experts. Inside, the view is incredible: the sunlight passing through an underwater cavity shine through the seawater and creates a brilliant blue-to-emerald reflection that illuminates the waters of the shady cavern. Such a memorable experience!

Continue to Agrigento. Lunch on your own. In the afternoon visit to the Valley of the Temples known for its beautiful Temples. Visit the Concordia, Apollo and temples. Back to Taormina.

Piazza Armerina/Villa Romana del Casale: Built in the first quarter of the 4th century and located about 5 km outside the town of Piazza Armerina, Sicily, southern Italy. Containing the richest, largest and most complex collection of Roman mosaics in the world, it is one of 44 UNESCO World Heritage Sites in Italy.

Agrigento: Valle dei Templi ("Valley of the Temples", a misnomer, as it is a ridge, rather than a valley). They are listed as a World Heritage Site. The best-preserved of the temples are two very similar buildings traditionally attributed to the goddesses Juno Lacinia and Concordia (though archaeologists believe this attribution to be incorrect). The tradition of chocolate has been brought to Sicily by Spaniards during their domination of the island. Back to Taormina.

Ragusa: The city is the most wealthy of southern Italy, it is called the "City of Bridges" for the presence of three structures very picturesque, but it was also defined by writers, artists and economists as the "island within an island" or "the other Sicily", thanks to its history and a socio-economic context is very different from the rest of the island. In 1693 a devastating earthquake caused almost total destruction of the entire city. The reconstruction, which took place in the eighteenth century, divided into two broad areas: on one side the city of new city of Ragusa located on the plateau, on the other Ragusa Ibla, built and rebuilt from the ruins of ancient cities in the ancient medieval structure. The role of the new cathedral was assigned to a modest little church, Aghia Kiriaki in the village nearby which was later called Monreale. DURATION

Depart to Segesta and visit the Doric Temple surrounded by a unique landscape. Continue to Erice, a medieval village on a top of a hill viewing all the Northern Sicilian coast. Time at leisure for lunch. In the afternoon depart to the marvelous Saline. Back to Palermo.

Segesta: On a hill just outside the site of the ancient city of Segesta lies an unusually well-preserved Doric temple. Several things suggest that the temple was never actually finished. The columns have not been fluted as they normally would have been in a Doric temple and there are still tabs present in the blocks of the base (used for lifting the blocks into place but then normally removed). It also lacks a cella and was never roofed over. The temple is also unusual for being a Hellenic temple in a city not mainly populated by Greeks.

Erice: The ancient name of Erice was Eryx, and its foundation was associated with the eponymous Greek hero Eryx. It was not a Greek colony but was largely Hellenized. It was destroyed in the First Punic War by the Carthaginians, and from then on declined in importance.

Saline di Trapani: an extraordinary lagoon, where history, nature, archeology find a perfect synthesis and allow the visitor to try different, unique and charming experiences.

Have a nice boat trip to Mozia and islands, located nearby. The tour of the natural reserve of the “Stagnone di Marsala” is a one of a kind archaeological and naturalistic experience. Board on these special boats, designed ad hoc to be able to navigate in the lagoon bottoms that at low tide reach only 25 cm.

When a vineyard combines centuries of tradition with innovative technology, they have made a statement worth acknowledging. Vigne Surrau, a relatively new venture in Sardinia, is one of those rare breeds of producers that claims the past while living in the present. Yes, there is innovation, experimentation and state-of-the-art technology. The history lies in the choice of grapes used for production, Vermentino, Carignano, Muristellu and Cannonau. Those grapes, historically, are age specific to the region.

Vigne Surrau is located near the sea, a few kilometers from Costa Smeralda, in the region of Gallura, an area that is not tourist infested, like much of Sardinia. Crushed granite stone dominates the vineyards soils and help influence the unique expression of the wines
