Come sunset, Rome turns into one of the most romantic places ever! Enjoy a relaxing panoramic tour of Rome by private car or minivan, and discover how charming the most famous Roman monuments can get at night. You will walk across the ex Jewish Ghetto, a traditional historic neighborhood. In the heart of the ex ghetto (Piazza Mattei) one of the cutest fountains in town stands out, the Fontana delle Tartarughe. The Jewish Ghetto of Rome is the second most ancient ghetto in Italy after the one in Venice, and it can be considered the heart and soul of Roman cuisine. You will walk into Piazza della Rotonda and enjoy a lit Pantheon, a Roman temple to all the gods wanted by M. Agrippa which was later converted into a church: this is the only ancient Roman temple that remained untouched throughout the centuries, and it's stunning to see at night when the crowds are away. Next stop is... Just close your eyes and throw a coin over your right shoulder straight into the Trevi Fountain: it's said that those who do so, are granted to come back to Rome someday. Your walk continues towards Piazza di Spagna, one of the city's most popular squares, known for its setting at the bottom of the Spanish Steps. Walk up these famous steps to enjoy a lovely view from the top (or Trinità dei Monti).

COOKING CLASS IN THE ROMAN COUNTRYSIDE

Nothing speaks more authentic Italian than visiting an ancient village off the beaten tourist track, especially if you add cooking and eating to the picture. We chose Mazzano Romano, a special location 35 km north of Rome: this Medieval town is right inside the protected area of the Veio Regional Park. You'll travel to Mazzano Romano by car. Wear comfortable clothes and avoid your best shoes, because you'll join our trusted chef to either go grocery shopping at a farmer's market or, according to season, you'll reach a lavish farm! Here you'll pick by hand all of the ingredients required for your lunch: seasonal veggies, fragrant herbs, and freshly laid eggs. Once in the kitchen, you'll learn how to prepare every item on the menu: antipasti, several kinds of hand-made fresh pasta, a second course and a lovely dessert. This step-by-step class that employs easy techniques is suitable for aspiring cooks of all ages and will let you become a pasta pro, perfectly able to replicate the whole menu once you're back home. You'll lunch to your own preparations, perfectly paired with some good wine and maybe you'll find out that you have a real talent for Italian cuisine! Then, enjoy the countryside and relax: in the afternoon we'll take you back to Rome.

ESPRESSO, TIRAMISÙ AND GELATO TASTING TOUR

Everybody loves some good Italian artisanal gelato, a tiny cup of hot espresso and a decadent portion of creamy tiramisù, and there's no better chance to satisfy your sweet tooth than your Italian holiday. But, in a city as big and crowded as Rome, the risk of bumping into overpriced tourist traps is real. What to do, then? You can try your luck, or you can reach us under Bernini's elephant and obelisk, very close to the Pantheon, for this two-hour-and-half walking food tour. Our trusted local food connoisseur will introduce to you all those mouth-watering local treats you've been dreaming about, giving you info and answering questions. The setting is, of course, stunning: all the coffee and pastry shops that you'll visit are all located in the city center, so keep your selfie stick ready! One tasting after another, you'll learn to recognize what is considered high quality when it comes to Italian food: how can you recognize an authentic artisan gelato from an industrially processed one? What ingredients are needed in order to prepare a good home-made tiramisù? And do Italians really drink cappuccino only before lunch? You'll go back home being an expert in the field and...with a full stomach! La dolce vita, the sweet life, couldn't get sweeter than this.

Foodies of the world, unite! Whether you're a seasoned gourmand or just a food lover wishing to find out more about Roman cuisine and Italian food traditions, reach our meeting point. You'll join our local food connoisseur guide for a food walk, you'll try and taste lots of different treats! We'll meet mid-morning and enjoy a lovely walking tour through local food markets, grocery stores and gelato shops in the areas of Campo De' Fiori, Trastevere, and the Jewish Ghetto. We know that exercise makes one hungry, that's why we thought you'd appreciate some pit-stops. For instance, you'll enjoy a slice of freshly baked crispy pizza bianca (Rome's own version of focaccia) cut in half horizontally and filled with thin slices of freshly cut mortadella: a traditional, more-Roman-than-the-Colosseum easy snack that locals love. And what about trying a supplì? This little ball of deep-fried tomato sauce risotto with a heart of melted mozzarella cheese is everyone's favorite street food. Pasta will be on the list too, along with some dishes from the Roman Jewish tradition: the carciofo alla giudia a Jewish style deep-fried artichoke that resembles a tiny sunflower or the fried zucchini flower (according to seasonality) And save some space for dessert, because we won't skip our portion of artisan gelato!

It's said that a pizza slice a day keeps the sadness away, and what better chance than your Italian escape to learn how to make and bake everybody's favorite food? Kids will love it! Our local trusted pizza chef will introduce you to the noble art of pizza making, a pretty serious tradition that requires a very precise process. Don't be scared though: they will show you every technique and follow you through every step. During this afternoon class, you'll learn what ingredients are needed to make the perfect pizza dough, how to knead it and how to top it properly. And you'll do it yourself, choosing your own ingredients: you'll be free to experiment with various recipes and toppings. Bake the pizza in the oven and wait for it to turn into a thin-and-crispy-but-still-fluffy delicacy. While the pizza is in the oven, enjoy your well-earned rest! Relax and immerse yourself in the unique experience of an Italian pizza dinner. Start with a tasty bruschetta and make a toast to the good life: water, wine or a soft drink is included. Taste the pizza you prepared and find out whether you developed the skills of an authentic pizzaiolo (Italian for pizza-chef); then celebrate with a lovely dessert.

Take your authentic Roman-style pasta cooking class in the Jewish district of Rome as seen in the Stanley Tucci's show. Take a break from visiting the city by meeting local people and learning how to make a typical Roman dinner menu from scratch. Meet your host in Piazza Mattei, a fascinating square in the heart of Rome's former Jewish Ghetto. The area offers breathtaking views of the stratification of Rome over centuries and a number of shops as well as very good restaurants selling Jewish-Roman food. Enjoy the easygoing lifestyle the Ghetto is so famous for! Access the restaurant where the class takes place and meet your Chef who will be ready to share his recipes with you and reveal his tricks. This is a hands-on class, but being a simple spectator is also an option: you can relax, watch the chef at work, while you sip a glass of wine. You will learn how to make homemade pasta from scratch, cleaning and preparing seasonal vegetables to fry, and taste desserts that Roman grandmothers used to cook for their kids. Seasonal food is a must in Rome. In a winter class, you'll have the opportunity to learn how to peel artichokes and cook them in the Jewish style, one of the highlights of Roman cuisine (carciofi alla giudia). In a typical summer class, you'll learn how to prepare zucchini flowers or other amazingly fresh vegetables that are in season during warmer months to make the original "fritto romano". For dessert, taste the amazing torta di ricotta e visciola, a famous ricotta cheesecake made with simple and delicious ingredients (visciola is a sour cherry). Book your pasta cooking class if you are looking for an authentic and entertaining experience in the Jewish district! Do not expect an academic class, though, just some time together with local people having fun as you prepare your own dishes!

Don't miss out on Tivoli, an ancient resort area near Rome famous for Roman ruins and lavish Renaissance residences.

Enjoy a comfortable transport to the little town of Tivoli, new Rome. Tivoli and its Villas is a tantalizing comprehensive tour that will leave you astonished. You will meet your driver to travel to this small town located 43 kilometers (that's 27 miles) from Rome, set in a splendid natural environment between the Eternal City and the high hills to the east. It is best known for hosting two UNESCO World Heritage sites. This is where Hadrian built his majestic villa back in the 2nd century AD: a luxury country residence where he used to retreat and where he lived his late years. The huge complex includes more than 30 buildings, several swimming pools, former thermal stations, and it covers an area larger than a square kilometer (0,386 square miles), which gives quite an idea of the purpose of the place: show the opulence and power of the emperor. In the 16th century, much of the remaining marble and statues were removed from Hadrian's Villa by Cardinal Ippolito II d'Este. With those marbles he decorated his own villa located nearby: Villa d'Este, a UNESCO world heritage site. The villa interiors are largely frescoed, and a huge garden surrounds it, displaying a complex system of pools, water jets, channels, fountains, cascades, and water games. What makes this system of fountains such an incredible masterpiece of engineering is that it works entirely by the force of gravity, without pumps.

You will reach Roma Termini railways station with a driver and meet your tour leader for check-in. He/she will be with you to make sure you make it to Venice safely. You will reach Venice in a bit more than 3 hours. From Venezia Santa Lucia railway station, you will reach a vaporetto stop (dock) located a stone's throw away. Enjoy the ride on the Venetian typical public transport waterbus, a fantastic way to start taking a glimpse at amazing views, architecture, historical buildings and churches façades, docks, gondolas, common residents running their errands and tourists doing their thing... St. Mark's Square is the heart of the historical center. After getting off the vaporetto and a two-minute walk, simply take a left turn and take in the magnificence of the Western façade of St. Mark's Basilica. A skip the line entrance ticket is included in the rate. From St. Mark, don't be afraid to get lost in the maze of alleys (or calli) to see the bridges Venice is famous for. Spend some time shopping, sipping an espresso in one of the quaint historical coffee shops, or even sitting at the outside table of a modern bar. Maybe make a stop (highly recommended) on the Bridge of Sighs (or Ponte dei Sospiri), one of the most beautiful Insta spots for amazing shots. What about a cicchetto, as Venetians call it? It is a mix of small savory snacks and side dishes typically served in a bar or informal restaurant and washed down with a drink, wine or a spritz veneziano... At the end of the afternoon, head back to the station and board the train to Rome. You will arrive at 10:10 PM approximately, and enjoy a transfer back to your hotel.

No holiday in Naples is complete without a trip to the enchanting island of Capri. Spend an unforgettable day getting a panoramic view of Capri, reaching the island with no stress and our tour includes Blue Grotto's visit.

Capri is a famous destination. You'll feel overwhelmed by its gorgeous sights – beautiful sea, flourishing nature, historic monuments. Capri has it all! It is said that Emperor Tiberius liked it so much that he refused to return to Rome and reigned most of the time from a villa on a cliff. Capri is also known for its many artisan shops and luxury boutiques. An absolute highlight is the Blue Grotto, a marine temple during Roman times. Nowadays swimming is forbidden here, and only small rowboats are allowed under the supervision of local experts. Inside, the view is incredible: the sunlight passing through an underwater cavity shines through the seawater and creates a brilliant blue-to-emerald reflection that illuminates the waters of the shady cavern. Such a memorable experience!

Containing the richest, largest and most complex collection of Roman mosaics in the world, it is one of 44 UNESCO World Heritage Sites in Italy. Agrigento: Valle dei Templi ("Valley of the Temples", a misnomer, as it is a ridge, rather than a valley). They are listed as a World Heritage Site. The best-preserved of the temples are two very similar buildings traditionally attributed to the goddesses Juno Lacinia and Concordia (though archaeologists believe this attribution to be incorrect). The area around the Temple of Concordia was later re-used by early Christians as a catacomb, with tombs hewn out of the rocky cliffs and outcrops.

5 HOURS

Depart to Savoca, a charming medieval town with mosaics on all the walls. The town center is a square overlooking the sea and there we will find the famous café "Bar Vitelli", where you can enjoy fresh slushes, sitting at the tables where the wedding scene between Micheal Corleone and Apollonia was filmed. Then, a short walk through the streets of the village until you reach the church of Santa Lucia, chosen to film the wedding scene. Nothing to do with the films: visit the Monasterio dos Capuchinos where there is a crypt with the mummified bodies of Savoy monks and nobles, who died between the 17th and 18th centuries. Departure to Forza d'Agrò, a little town with fantastic views, the arch of Durazzo and the church of the Triada. Return to Taormina.

Visit the famous Capo market. Lunch by your own. In the afternoon, continue to Monreale and visit the splendid Cathedral as well as the Benedictine cloister. Back to your hotel.

Monreale: After the occupation of Palermo by the Arabs in 1102 the Bishop of Palermo was forced to move his seat outside the capital. The role of the new cathedral was assigned to a modest little church, Aghia Kiriaki in the village nearby which was later called Monreale. After the Norman conquest in 1072 Christians got back the old city cathedral. Monreale was the seat of the metropolitan archbishop of Sicily, which thenceforth exerted a large influence over Sicily.

Lunch by your own. In the afternoon visit to the Valley of the Temples known for its beautiful Temples. Visit the Concordia, Apollo and temples. Back to Palermo.

Piazza Armerina/Villa Romana del Casale: Built in the first quarter of the 4th century and located about 5 km outside the town of Piazza Armerina, Sicily, southern Italy. Containing the richest, largest and most complex collection of Roman mosaics in the world, it is one of 44 UNESCO World Heritage Sites in Italy. Agrigento: Valle dei Templi ("Valley of the Temples", a misnomer, as it is a ridge, rather than a valley). Now excavated and partially restored, they constitute some of the largest and best-preserved ancient Greek buildings outside of Greece itself. They are listed as a World Heritage Site. The best-preserved of the temples are two very similar buildings traditionally attributed to the goddesses Juno Lacinia and Concordia (though archaeologists believe this attribution to be incorrect). The area around the Temple of Concordia was later re-used by early Christians as a catacomb, with tombs hewn out of the rocky cliffs and outcrops.

Depart to Segesta and visit the Doric Temple surrounded by a unique landscape. Continue to Erice, a medieval village on a top of a hill viewing all the Northern Sicilian coast. Time at leisure for lunch. In the afternoon depart to the marvellous Saline. Back to Palermo.

Segesta: On a hill just outside the site of the ancient city of Segesta lies an unusually well preserved Doric temple. Several things suggest that the temple was never actually finished. The columns have not been fluted as they normally would have been in a Doric temple and there are still tabs present in the blocks of the base (used for lifting the blocks into place but then normally removed). It also lacks a cella and was never roofed over. The temple is also unusual for being a Hellenic temple in a city not mainly populated by Greeks.

Erice: The ancient name of Erice was Eryx, and its foundation was associated with the eponymous Greek hero Eryx. It was not a Greek colony, but was largely Hellenized. It was destroyed in the First Punic War by the Carthaginians, and from then on declined in importance.

Saline di Trapani: an extraordinary lagoon, where history, nature, archeology find a perfect synthesis and allow the visitor to try different, unique and charming experiences.

Have a nice boat trip to Mozia and islands, located nearby. The tour of the natural reserve of the "Stagnone di Marsala" is a one of a kind archaeological and naturalistic experience. Board on these special boats, designed ad hoc to be able to navigate in the lagoon bottoms that at low tide reach only 25 cm.

When a vineyard combines centuries of tradition with innovative technology, they have made a statement worth acknowledging. Vigne Surrau, a relatively new venture in Sardinia, is one of those rare breeds of producers that claims the past while living in the present. Yes, there is innovation, experimentation and state-of-the-art technology. The history lies in the choice of grapes used for production, Vermentino, Carignano, Muristellu and Cannonau. Those grapes, historically, are age specific to the region. Vigne Surrau is located near the sea, a few kilometers from Costa Smeralda, in the region of Gallura, an area that is not tourist infested, like much of Sardinia. Crushed granite stone dominates the vineyards soils and help influence the unique expression of the wines.
