

BOCELLI IN CONCERT

MARKING THE 20TH EDITION

TEATRO DEL SILENZIO LAJATICO

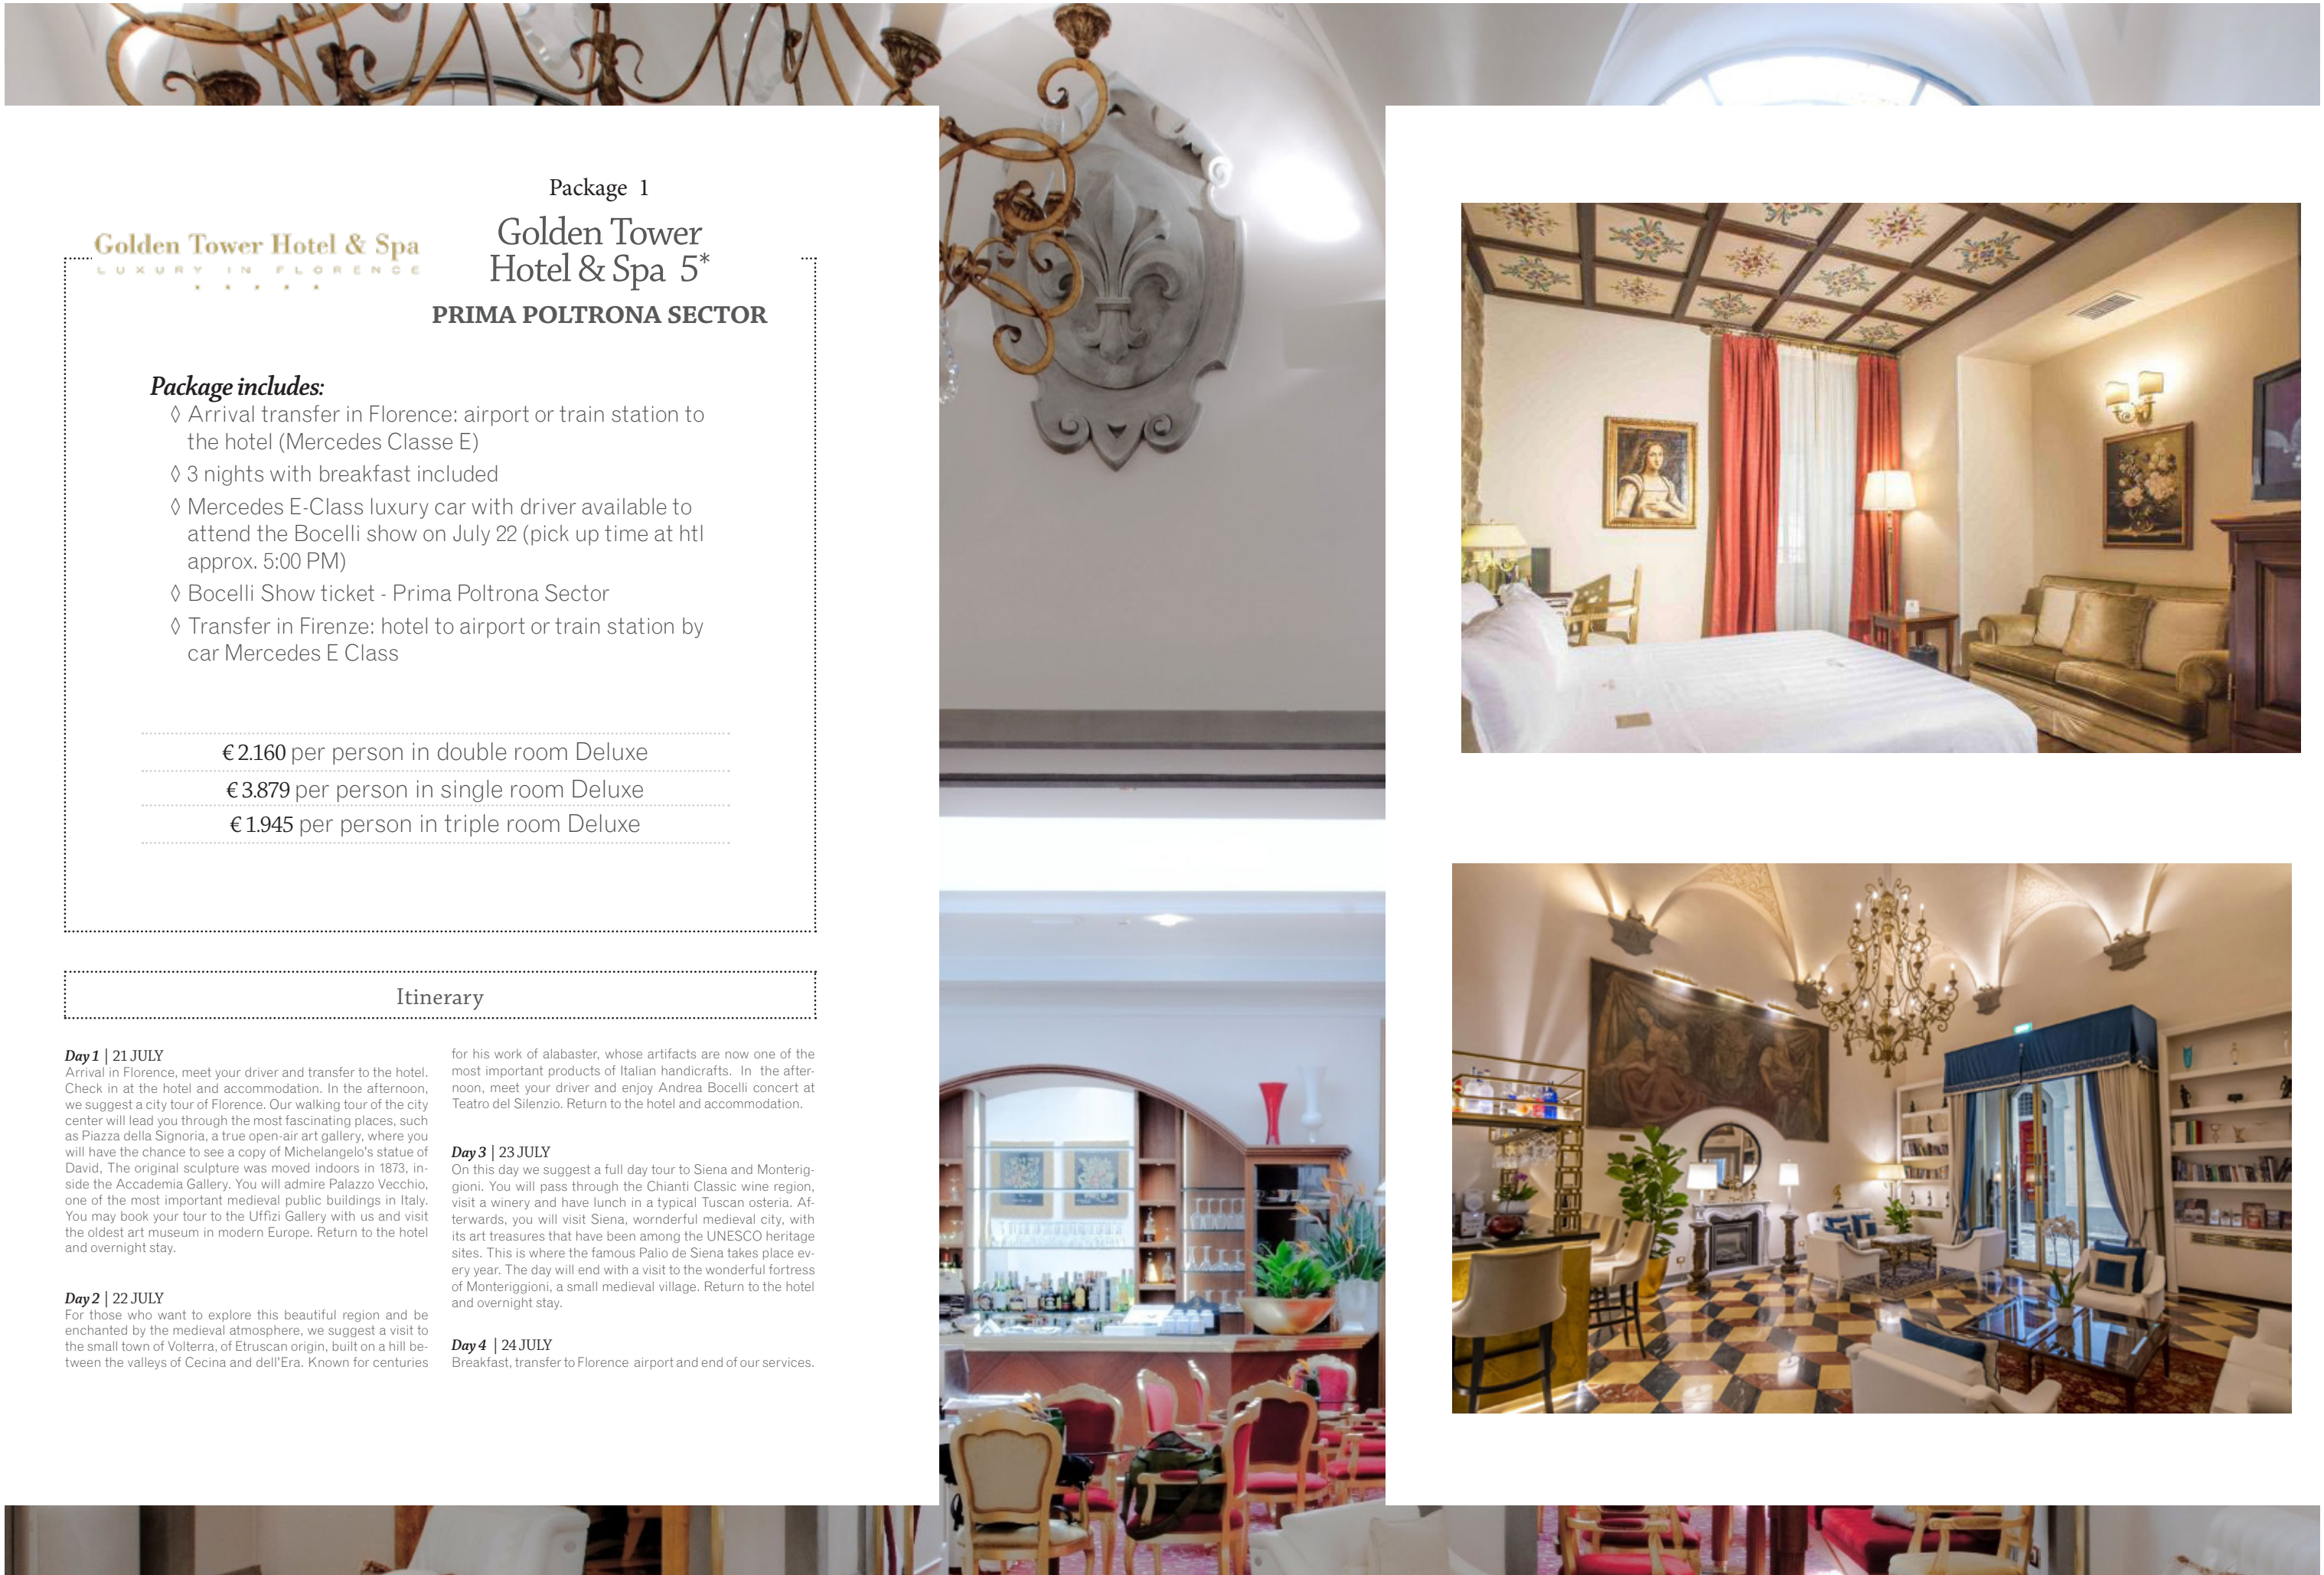

JULY 22, 2025 - 8:30 PM

NOW IT'S OFFICIAL

On Tuesday, July 22, the world's most beloved tenor, Andrea Bocelli, will return to the stage in his hometown of Lajatico for the 20th time. This year's "Andrea Bocelli Night" promises to be the most spectacular yet, with an expanded lineup of international guests, captivating music, dance, breathtaking sets, and unforgettable surprises.

The most recent edition of the Teatro del Silenzio that celebrated my thirty-year career," Maestro Bocelli emphasized, "was a memorable experience that showcased the uniqueness of this place: a wonderful audience and an artistic lineup that delivered some of the most acclaimed creative performances in the world! It all unfolded within an atmosphere of serenity and inspired, euphoric levity. The beauty of Lajatico plays its role, helping to create a welcoming environment for our guests. Yet, what continues to amaze me is the profound and sincere emotional engagement I felt everywhere—from the singers to the actors and, of course, the audience. Everyone was genuinely delighted to be there. It's challenging to analyze the reasons for this connection rationally. In many ways, my entire career has had an inexplicable quality to it over these thirty years, culminating in this incredible midsummer concert. However, we are already preparing a new 'dream cast' for 2025, ensuring that the 20th edition of this remarkable endeavor—successful for two decades—receives the celebration it deserves. We aspire for this event to be a collective moment of grace, part of an extraordinary experience that honors art and life.
